

GOLF WESTOWN 2011

Newsletter 10 October 1st 2011

Humour:

A man takes the day off of work and decides to go to golf. He is on the second hole when he notices a frog sitting next to the green. He thinks no more about it and is about to play his shot when hears, "Ribbit, 9 Iron".

The man looks around and doesn't see anyone, so he tries again. "Ribbit 9 Iron". He looks at the frog and decides to prove the frog wrong; he puts away his 8 iron and grabs the 9 Iron. Boom! He hits a birdie. He is shocked. He says to the frog, "Wow! That's amazing! You must be a lucky frog.Eh?" The frog replies "Ribbit. Lucky Frog".

The man decides to take the frog with him to the next hole. "What do you do you think, frog?" "Ribbit. 3 wood," was the reply. The guy takes out his 3 wood and Boom! Hole in one. The man is befuddled and doesn't know what to say. By the end of the day the man has played the best game of his life and asks the frog, "OK, where to next?"

The frog replies."Ribbit, Las Vegas. The frog and the man go to Las Vegas and the guy asks the frog, "What now." "Ribbit. Roulette". When the guy gets to the table he asks the frog what he should bet on.

"Ribbit, $3000, black 6". Now that's a million to one shot, but after the golf game, the man figures what the heck. Boom! Tons of cash comes sliding back across the table.

The man takes his winnings and buys the best room in the hotel. He sits the frog down and says, " Frog, I don't know how to repay you. What can I do for you?" "Ribbit. Kiss me" asks the frog. He figures why not after all the frog has won him all this money.

So, he kisses the frog. All of a sudden the frog turns into the most gorgeous 16-year-old girl in the world.

"And that, your honour, is how the girl ended up in my room".

From Golf-ing. A Duffers Dictionary Forecaddy.

A caddy sent ahead on a hole so he can signal that he doesn't have a clue where an errant drive ended up instead of wasting 5 minutes pretending to know where it landed.

Forward Press.

A Lateral shift of the hips or hands or knees toward the target that many golfers use to initiate the swing after using the head of the club to apply lie-enhancing move known as the 'downward press' to the turf directly behind the ball.

Four-Ball.

A Match in which four golfers each play their own balls until they have lost every one of them, at which point play shifts to a "No ball" format and they head of to clubhouse for a round of Gin Rummy.

Rules of Golf

Question; When is my ball deemed to be on the Putting Green?

Answer; If any part of the ball is touching the surface of the Putting Green, even if its only a dimple, the ball is on the green.

This is clarified in Definitions; Putting Green.

Question; Is a white peg defining Out of Bounds a Moveable

Obstruction and, if so, may I remove it if it interferes with my stance or area of intended swing?

Answer; No. Anything defining Out of Bounds is fixed and part of the course and may not be removed. This is clarified in Definitions; Out of Bounds.

If you remove the peg to play your shot you are in breach of Rule 13-2 and incur a penalty of two strokes in strokeplay and loss of hole in matchplay.
